

Main Point: Super heroes pray about everything.

Nehemiah was upset when he heard that the walls and gates of Jerusalem had been torn down. He prayed to God and asked what he could do to help the people. After praying, he asked the king for permission to rebuild the walls, and then he got started on the repairs.

When Nehemiah heard about a problem that made him sad, he didn't cry or complain about it—he prayed. God gave Nehemiah the directions to rebuild the walls.

If Nehemiah can pray about walls, you can pray about anything that is bothering you.
